In recognition of the proven value, both personal and educational, of the international exchange for students, staff and faculty, and in order to develop academic and cultural exchange in education and research and to further effective and mutually beneficial cooperation and in recognition of the Agreement on Cultural Collaboration between The Republic of Uzbekistan and the Federal Republic of Germany from March 29 / April 11, 1994, the Faculty of Psychology and Social Science at Samarkand State University, and the Department of Social- and Educational Sciences at University of Applied Sciences Potsdam, intend to develop their cooperation especially in the fields of social and educational sciences and with a specific focus on interdisciplinary studies and projects.

Based upon the principles of respect for each other's independence and of mutual benefit, the two parties will promote the following activities on the basis of equality and reciprocity:

- a. Joint research activities and projects
- b. Exchange of professors, researchers and staff
- c. Exchange of students
- d. Exchange of scientific materials, publications and information
- e. Joint conferences
- f. Joint teaching projects
- g. Joint cultural programs.

The terms of such mutual assistance and cooperation shall be discussed and agreed upon in writing by the responsible authority of each university prior to the initiation of any particular programme or activity.

This Memorandum shall regulate the frame of the cooperation for five years. An extension by written agreement is possible. It may be terminated for good cause.

The Memorandum is executed in a set of two copies, and either party retains one copy.
